

SPECIAL FOR BLACK HISTORY MONTH

New clips from the talk

Revolution: Why It's Necessary, Why It's Possible, What It's All About

- Emmett Till and Jim Crow: Black people lived under a death sentence
- In the 1960s, it was like the dam finally burst
- What to the slave is your fourth of July? From the past to the present
- The police, Black youth and what kind of a system is this?
- “Yes there’s a conspiracy... to get the cops off.”
- Jim Crow through to the 1960s
- The bitter history of the buffalo soldiers
- Reparations for African-Americans
- Huey Newton and the Black Panther Party

Show these to your friends, in your class, student or community group. Break open the discussion—what does the history of Black people in the U.S. tell us about the present day reality?

White supremacy is built into the very foundation of this country. It is something that this system and those who rule it could not do without, even if they wanted to, which they don't. And this has continued down to the present.
