2024: A Year of Living for—and Fighting for— a Real Revolution for the Emancipation of Humanity

We face a world of needless suffering and destruction... of hunger and bombs and parents crying over dead children... a world of wildfires and droughts and glaciers melting... of women denied their fundamental rights... vicious white supremacy grinding down the lives of Black and Brown people... bitter exploitation and oppression of people here and around the world—all caused by the capitalist-imperialist system we live under.

For all those who can't stand what this system is doing to humanity and the planet, there is a real alternative beyond choosing between Genocide Joe Biden and MAGA-fascist Donald Trump. The Revcoms are calling for—and organizing for—an actual revolution to bring about a fundamentally different system and a whole new way for humanity to live.

FUNDS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED to make that revolution real—to bring out to millions that revolution is the only REAL, and actually emancipating, alternative to this brutal insanity that the world faces.

Revolutionary leader Bob Avakian, BA, has analyzed that this is a rare time when revolution becomes more possible—and that possibility rests on what we do NOW to bring forward millions with their eyes set on revolution.

Major funds are needed—to spread The Bob Avakian Interviews on The RNL—Revolution, Nothing Less!—Show on a whole other level than they have been so far... to enable the Revcoms (revolutionary communists) to radically step up the struggle... to allow agitators and organizers to travel to where things are the hottest... to challenge people in the ways they need to be challenged... to support and promote the invaluable RNL—Revolution, Nothing Less!—Show on YouTube and revcom.us.

On the January 7 Livestream, you'll meet some of those revolutionary agitators and organizers and you'll learn how you can be part of things—including by regularly raising funds.

We are all of us called on to decide what future we are willing to work toward and fight for.

WHY PEOPLE ARE DONATING TO THE REVCOMS:

“The reality is that the capitalist class, and all the machinery that keeps imperialism going, it’s funded with money. The fundraisers that are highlighted in revcom.us, the fundraisers of the Revolution Clubs, the fundraisers of The RNL Show, all these fundraisers exist to make sure that the revolutionary voice is able to reach broad masses of people in this country and around the world.

“There can be no excuse given, if we have funds, that we don’t donate. It is our responsibility to donate funds, and to encourage others to donate, and to create mechanisms and ideas and fundraisers so that funds can be raised to maintain the revolutionary struggle.

“Let’s go!”

“Leaders like BA don’t come along very often and are precious, a game changer. A major factor in whether something terrible or something truly liberating comes out of the period ahead. That’s why even in these hard times I donate what I can to the Revcoms—$25 right now, and I’m inviting others to join me in that.”

“Do you wanna see a free Palestine? Do you wanna see fascism here and around the world defeated? Do you wanna see an end to the ecocide and the genocide? Do you wanna see a reversal on the nuclear clock? Do you wanna see an end to klan terror by the police? Well then donate to the most revolutionary far seeing group today, the Revcoms and their philosophy led by Bob Avakian.”

“Every time I see a new image of a child shredded by rubble, or a mother screaming in agony, I feel extreme disappointment for the world I live in and anger at the ruling class who is letting this happen. I ask myself what I can do to actively help these people instead of going along with my day, like they aren’t suffering as I think about them. The only thing that comes to mind is to help the cause for a revolution. Any other thing I could do feels useless.”

“Every time I watch The RNL Show I think ‘if only everyone could see this show, they would see not only the horrors that exist in this country and around the world but the need and real possibility of bringing something totally different into being. They would see the leadership provided by Bob Avakian as a way to change people’s thinking and lead people to stand up for the revolutionary change that is needed....’

“And more to the point, if this show had the money and means to reach out to all the people who right now ARE looking to make a difference, to bring a whole new and emancipating future into being just think how they would be moved and what more could be accomplished. Our forces could multiply. So many more people could be unleashed, our chances would multiply.”
