

“...those of you who are not afraid of the truth...”

If you don't understand why we need a revolution, and how that revolution could be possible....

If you have thought about revolution but you say: “this could never really happen—we could never win”...

If you get stung – or nod your head – when you hear that the USA has never been a “great country”...

If you're someone that says: “why should I care about things like Palestine, we've got enough problems right here that need to be dealt with?”...

If you want to hear someone answer: “doesn't Israel have a right to defend itself...” and other justifications for genocide...

If you want to hear how revolution could be possible “in this time, not in some far off distant time”...

And much much more on the questions you have and the questions you don't know you have...
