

Did you come to UC Berkeley because it was Berkeley, with its radical history, and want to take part in changing the world? But don't actually know much about what the Free Speech Movement was all about? What were the key principles?

UC Berkeley, 1964

What do those have to do with the fight against injustice and for a better world today?

UT Austin, 2024

Then YOU need to be at this event:

60th Anniversary of the Free Speech Movement: "standing against injustice... with largeness of mind and generosity of spirit"

Friday, October 18, 6:00 PM

Revolution Books, 2444 Durant Ave

Speakers:

Waldo Martin, Professor, UC Berkeley Department of History, author of "Black Against Empire: The History and Politics of the Black Panther Party"

David S., Revcom Corps for the Emancipation of Humanity